Welcome to Mountype Publishing Annual Catalogue!

Before you continue to read further, let us give you a brief history about the company.

About the Company

Mountype Publishing was established on 24th January 2015.

It was set up to provide distinctive publications for educational purposes. Our books cater for preschool children to adults and are designed to promote child development and foster creativity and imagination.

At Mountype, we have an intimate understanding of student educational needs and values, how it plays an integral part of their growing life. So we try to ensure that they are exposed to the right teaching materials. Therefore making it our core objective to create a formidable reputation among learners with our wide range of exciting educational materials.

Finally, we believe in delivering quality contents and print at reasonable prices with competitive marketing.

Message from The Publishers

We're delighted to introduce our titles and upcoming titles to you. As you dive in, you'll see all thirteen (13) of our already published books. Most of them are for kindergarteners with the exception of our supplementary readers. As we squirrel away samples of our books to your school by our sales and marketing reps, we encourage you to feel free to review, return with comments and ofcourse! place an order. You will find our book order form at the end of the brochure.

We also have amazing discounts, sign-up discounts and other freebies waiting for you. We have tear-off certificate pages inserted in most the kindergarten text book to be used by the school teachers to celebrate the success in completion of our Easy and Fun series.

We are looking forward to growing with you and providing the right education materials for your needs.

Join us on this exciting expedition of creating outstanding books for you!

Sincerely,

Nana Djan

ISBN: 978-0-9502152-0-4

About the book

The King Of Katunga is a moral fable for modern times; a fairy-tale story told by a grandmother through the eye of her grandson, Rufus.

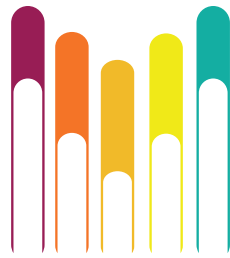

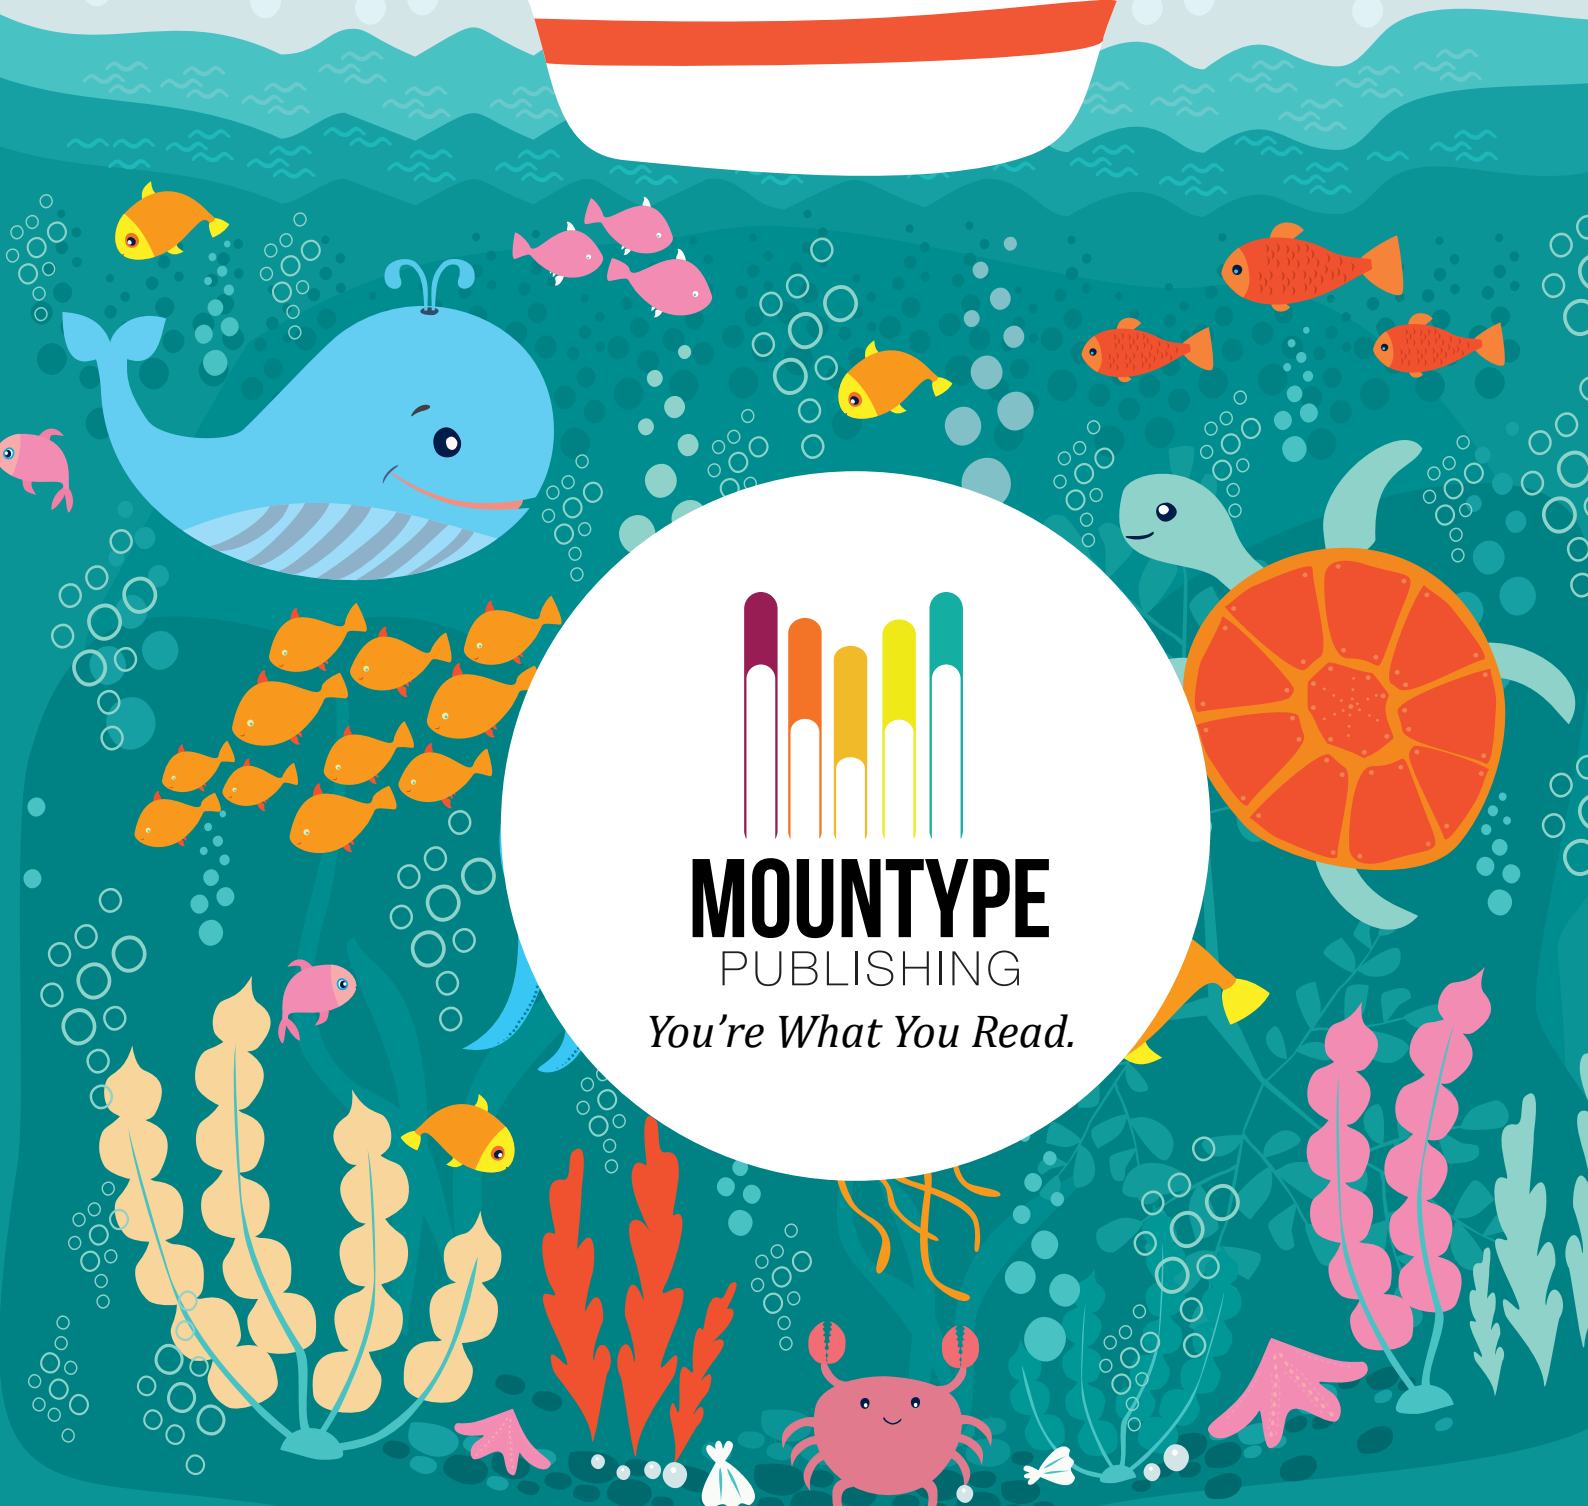

Rufus, with his childlike innocence, ‘picks’ a rose for his grandma Jocelyn without paying for it. Grandma Jocelyn, torn between love and the need to reprimand, invokes her inner grandma magic and draws Rufus into the magical land of Katunga. This is a tale of a kingdom... A king and his dilemma and the ultimate test... Who wins? What happens next?

Does Rufus learn his lesson? In the end it is only the virtue of honesty that leads to victory.
